

Elder Janice A. Wilson

Janice A. Wilson is a dedicated licensed Elder who is instrumental in overseeing the Discipleship Ministry Program at Bethesda International Church of the Lord Jesus Christ since her ordination in 2022. In this role, she focuses on teaching and guiding new converts and members, and she actively contributes to the church's Leadership Team and serves as a Trustee.

Elder Wilson's lifelong passion is to glorify God through her actions and those of her fellow believers. She was confirmed in her faith within the Protestant denomination at the age of twelve and was baptized in winter 1984 following the completion of her biblical studies at her local Assembly. Her journey in ministry progressed as she was ordained as a Deacon in 1989, where she also served on the Board, taught Bible classes, and participated in the praise and worship team.

In early 1992, Elder Wilson was led to Bethesda in Maryland, where she was baptized in the Name of Jesus in 1993. She enhanced her theological education by completing Archbishop Benson A. Idahosa's School of Wisdom and Bishop Veronica E. Watson's Bible School of Faith and Wisdom in 1994.

Throughout her over 31 years at Bethesda, she has taken on various roles, including praise team member, Head Usher, ordained Deacon, teacher, and licensed Minister and Evangelist. Her contributions extend to serving on the Board and as secretary of the women's committee. She has also played a significant role in producing Bethesda's Anniversary publications and has been involved in transportation and support ministries, event facilitation, and clergy liaison activities. Additionally, she collaborated with church leadership to develop a strategic outreach plan manual.

In the mid-1990s, then Evangelist Wilson founded New Directions Outreach Ministries of the Lord Jesus Christ (NDO) in Atlanta, Georgia, where she served as an Outreach Minister. From 1997 to 2022, Bishop Veronica E. Watson was the official overseer of NDO. Elder Wilson continues to fulfill her calling as an Elder and teacher, counseling and empowering individuals to thrive in their faith. She has also partnered with a weekly Bible study radio broadcast team and is a certified life coach through Dream Releasers Coaching, a Christian-based organization. Additionally, she has served as a guest speaker and session facilitator for national trainings, conferences, and symposiums across various organizations.

For more information about her outreach activities, please visit her website: New Directions Outreach Ministries.

Short Web version the full bio will be available for download through the site.

Janice A. Wilson is a dedicated licensed Elder at Bethesda International Church of the Lord Jesus Christ, where she is the overseer of the Discipleship Ministry Program since her ordination in 2022. With a lifelong passion for glorifying God, she has been involved in ministry since age twelve, progressing through various roles, including Deacon, teacher, and licensed Minister. A member of Bethesda for over 31 years, she has contributed to the church in multiple capacities, such as praise team member, Head Usher, and Board member. In addition to her church duties, she founded New Directions Outreach Ministries in Atlanta, Georgia, and has served as an Outreach Minister under the oversight of the late Bishop Veronica E. Watson. Elder Wilson is also a certified life coach and has participated in national trainings and conferences as a speaker and facilitator. For more information about her outreach initiatives, visit her website: New Directions Outreach Ministries.